

Mi receta favorita

Objective: Students will translate their favorite recipe from English to Spanish.

Materials:

Pen/Pencil

Computer with Internet

Crayons/Markers

Magazines/Scissors

Grade: Students will be graded using the suggested rubric.

Procedure:

1. You are going to translate your favorite recipe from English to Spanish.
  - The recipe must include at least 5 ingredients
  - The recipe must have at least 4 directions for preparation. You may include more ingredients and directions, but the above are required.
2. You will write your recipe on the worksheet provided. Everything must be in Spanish. You may use your Spanish book and your Spanish dictionary. You may NOT use your Spanish teacher!
3. On the directions for preparation, the verbs will need to be in the FORMAL command. (the Usted and Ustedes commands)
  - *Example: Pela los tomates. (Peel the tomatoes)
4. If you need help with the translation of the ingredients, go to <http://www.gallinablanca.es/html/home/home.asp>. Click on "Busca una receta." Next, click on "Búsqueda Avanzada." Finally, click on "Buscar recetas." Choose a recipe to see how it is written in Spanish.
5. A picture of your favorite food item is needed. You may either draw the food, or you may cut a picture out of a magazine.
6. Before you write your recipe on the worksheet, you will need to have at least ONE person in your class proofread it for you. After your classmate has read your recipe and made necessary corrections, write your recipe on the worksheet provided.
7. **Turn in your recipe when completed.

*You may not use this example in your recipe

**Optional for teachers: Compile the class recipes into a book and title it "Las recetas de la clase de español." Have the students design a cover for the cookbook. Give each of the students a copy of the cookbook when finished.
